DEDICATION

Dear Parents,

The Senior class of 1962 would like to express, in some way, its deep appreciation and thanks to you for all that you have done for us throughout the years. Through your guidance, we learned subjects and good manners well. You have stood by us and helped us in any way you could.

It is with respect, admiration, and love that we dedicate our yearbook to the parents who mean so much to us.

Sincerely,
The Class of 1962

School Secretary

To the Class of 1962,
Your Otsego High School years are about to end with graduation. During your stay with us, the teachers have tried to give you the best possible background and training for these rapidly changing times. How well we have succeeded remains to be seen. We are counting on you to be a real credit to yourselves, your family, your Otsego school and country.
The most important thing to remember is that you'll get out of something exactly what you put into it. Good luck and Godspeed in all your endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

New, strange, alone, lost . . . There we stood in the middle of our first grade room. The year? 1950 . . . Remember laying our heads on our desks for our daily naps? In the First Grade the work began . . . numbers, words, "See Spot jump," . . . and the games . . .

tag, hide and seek, making forts . . . and recess. How many of us kept within the boundaries of the south side of the school. The Second Grade—trips to the zoo . . . divided up in small groups with our guide (whom we were never with),

Third Grade . . . Remember the train trip to Deshler Mrs. Morgan took us on? . . . the period we had to play with clay? . . . In the Fourth Grade—fractions and penmanship drills. We studied and the months passed.

Memories of Mrs. Maneval's Fifth Grade—the trip we took to Hayes Memorial, and learning to square dance. Then came the Sixth Grade—and the trip to the Art Museum . . . chasing each other around while our teacher pointed at skeletons of dinosaurs.

We scanned the schedule sheets . . .
 "But do you know what happened? The periods are longer!" We spent lots of time that Freshman year eying curiously those "big" seniors, doing our best to acquire a few friends in that mighty class. A Band Concert in the spring preceded Easter vacation. This year seemed harder and it went slowly but finally, final tests . . . and after a long year of work and fun, the year ended.

Senior Play

"But pop, I was only going 90 miles an hour—out of the driveway."

"There's one mouse Lady Babby didn't get."

"Meet Me In St. Louis"

"Oh! These daily facials!!"

"Does it hurt, Ron?"

"You're too young to go steady at ten."

On November 17 and 18, the Senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," was staged in the high school gymnasium. The play took place in the living room of the Smith family, in the year 1904. The World's Fair is about to begin and many hilarious events take place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, played by Gary Grolle and Karen Rupert. Mr. Dan Whitmer directed the play.

The name of this year's Junior Class Play was "One Wild Night". The play was presented on April 28, and directed by Mr. Dan Whitmer. Two of the main characters were Rodney Dodd, played by Bruce Baty, a healthy young man who thinks he is an invalid, and Henrietta, played by Sue Pugh, his housekeeper. The play was hilarious and was a huge success.

Dancing in the dark!

On May 19th the Juniors held their Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet. The theme was "An evening in Hawaii". The Banquet was held at the American Legion Hall in Tontogany and the Prom at Haskins gym. The girls who served at the banquet wore colorful mu-mus.

The gym was decorated beautifully with a palm tree and small pond in the middle of the floor. The teachers choose Dale Baty and Bill Ingraham as Queen and King of the Prom. Carol Sutton's Orchestra played for the dance. It was enjoyed by all.
